FUSION 2016 Conference

The International Conference on Information Fusion is a premier forum for interchange of the latest research in information fusion and discussion of its impacts on our society. The conference brings together researchers and practitioners from industry and academia to report on the latest scientific and technical advances. Hundreds of authors will be publishing their advances and applications concerning information fusion technologies.

The 19th FUSION conference will be held in Heidelberg at the Heidelberg Convention center located right beside the river of Neckar within the history city and close to many of the city's main sights. We invite you to become a part of this important event as sponsor. You will get access the international experts, young talents from research and development, and meet users and customers that want to keep up with the latest innovations concerning information fusion technologies.

Sponsoring Opportunities

We offer various ways to become a part of FUSION 2016. For one, there is always the possibility to sign your employees up for the conference without a publication. If you decide to directly help fund the conference, you can benefit from different incentives. Where you will be mentioned in the conference materials and what benefits you receive depends on your commitment. We have summarized all benefits in the following table.

	Platinum benefits*	Call for Papers	Own booth	Banner in the lobby	Website	Booklet	Commitment
Platinum	Yes	Yes	Large	Yes	Yes	Yes	10000€
Gold	No	Yes	Large	Yes	Yes	Yes	5000€
Silver	No	No	Small	Yes	Yes	Yes	2500€
Bronze	No	No	—	Yes	Yes	Yes	1000€

The booth gives you the opportunity to allow your employees to directly address and connect to conference participants. We will put up your banner free of charge. Necessary staff for the booth can enter the venue for free and can benefit from free coffee breaks. If you want to send additional employees to the conference, please contact us for an individual plan.

*The Platinum benefits comprise a short speech at the beginning of the conference and advertisement on the conference badge and in every bag.
